

Epupa Tour

Day 1: Early start from Ozonduno, heading in a westerly direction to main town of Koakoland – Opuwo there we shall see the first Ovahimba tribe. This tribe will be our main theme of this tour. We settle at a very nice lodge for the evening

Day2: After breakfast we drive approximately 160km north to the Kunene which is the border between Angola and Namibia. There we shall stay for the night in Luxury tents between beautiful palms, which grow on the southern banks of the Epupa falls. We shall enjoy a light lunch.

Day 3: Today we shall visit the traditional Owahimba village and graveyard in the area. A traditional translator will lead us through the village and will explain everything to us. Our accommodation will again be luxury tents and a scrumptious dinner (at own cost).

Day 4: Leaving Kaokoland, and drive to the next destination, Palmwag Lodge, which lies next to the Uniab River. If interested, we do a game drive into the concession area. We enjoy dinner next to the Union in the restaurant. At night elephants may wonder through the camp.

Day 5: After breakfast we drive to the rock paintings in the Twyfelfontein area, we also see the “burnt mountain”. After a light lunch we drive to the Brandberg, which is the highest mountain of Namibia. Here we shall stay at the foot of Brandberg in a beautiful new lodge. Possibility that the elephants pass through the night.

Day 6: If so wished, we can have a 2-3 hour walk to see the rock painting “the white lady” up the Brandberg. After breakfast we leave for Windhoek, where we will stay the night at a lodge east from Windhoek. Game can be seen at the waterhole in the evenings.

Day 7: Depending on flight schedule we either go for a shopping spree to Windhoek or go directly to the airport after breakfast.

Prices: €2935 for 2 persons sharing

Prices valid till 31/7/2007

From 1/8/2007 price increase of €80 till 31/12/2007

Prices exclude: Fuel, dinner, and drinks.

Prices include: Entry fees into all parks concession areas, light lunch, driver car and accommodation.